NOTIFICATIONS

New Delhi, the 15th February 1950

No. SV-101(11)/49.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 8 of the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Act, 1946 (XXIV of 1946), the Central Government is pleased to direct that the following amendments shall be made in the Sugar (Futures and Options) (Prohibition), Order, 1949, namely:—

In the said Order,—

1. Except in sub-clause (1) of clause 1 and sub-clause (a) of clause 2, after the word “sugar” wherever it occurs, the words “or gur” shall be inserted.

2. In sub-clause (1) of clause 1, after the word “sugar” the words “and gur” shall be inserted.

3. In clause 2,—

(i) the following definitions shall be inserted at the commencement, namely:—

“(a) ‘appointed day’ means—

(i) in the case of sugar, the date of commencement of this Order, and

(ii) in the case of gur, the 15th day of February 1950;

(b) (i) ‘gur’ means the article commonly known as gur, gul, jaggery, palmyra jaggery, shakkar or rab, and includes raw sugar or uncrystallised sugar in any other form composed of original and convertible molasses and other impurities, inherent or foreign, and prepared by boiling cane or palmyra juice;

(ii) the existing sub-clause (a), (b), (c) and (d) shall be re-lettered as (c), (d), (e) and (f) respectively

4. In clause 3 for the words “After the commencement of this Order” the words “On and after the appointed day” shall be substituted.

5. In clause 4, for the words “Commencement of this Order” the words “appointed day” shall be substituted.

No. SV-131(3)/50.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Sections 3 and 4 of the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Act, 1946 (XXIV of 1946), the Central Government is pleased to direct that no person shall offer and no railway administration shall accept for transport by railway any gur, gur shakkar or khandsari sugar from any station in the State of Uttar Pradesh, except under a permit issued by the Central Government or by any officer or authority empowered by the Central Government in this behalf.
